TERMS AND CONDITIONS

In order to reserve a place, the registration form must be completed and returned, along with the appropriate fees. All fees are payable in advance. A place is deemed reserved only upon receipt of confirmation from the college.

Should a student wish to withdraw from a course, fees are only refundable at the Principal's discretion.

Absence from classes for whatever reason, including sickness, does not lead to a refund of fees nor can the college be expected to provide extra lessons to compensate for such absence.

Students are jointly or individually liable for any damage caused by them to the premises in which they are taught.

If it is impossible to form a group of at least two in any subject, the college undertakes to provide half the usual number of hours of individual tuition for the same fees as for the group courses. If, on the other hand, a place has been offered specifically for individual tuition, then the hourly individual rates applies.

The college reserves the right to terminate the course of any student whose conduct, work effort or attendance is unsatisfactory. In this case, the balance of the fees is refundable only at the Principal's discretion.

Teaching schedules may be altered at short notice should circumstances demand.
